B'nai Torah requires that at least one spouse be Jewish for a family membership in B'nai Torah. The non-Jewish spouse is considered a full member and will feel completely welcome at B'nai Torah during all services, religious celebrations and social events. Only the Jewish spouse will be called upon to participate in rituals. Therefore, please provide the following information:

Are both spouses Jewish?

If not, which one is the Jewish spouse?

Yahrzeit information:
